LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP DIARMUID MARTIN IN SUPPORT OF THE CROSSCARE APPEAL

My Dear People,

This weekend the Annual Collection to support the work of Crosscare takes place and replaces the Share Collection at all Masses.
Individuals, young people and families who have found themselves in situations of precariousness depend on our help and caring support.

Crosscare is the social support agency of the Archdiocese of Dublin and sets out to ease the harsh burden that so many feel. For nearly 80 years now Crosscare has delivered services to respond to the many unmet needs in our society. It cares for young people whose voices may be unheard, for those who may be hungry, or without a home. Day by day, more and more people experience the dedicated support of Crosscare where they are welcomed in a spirit of respect, dignity and love. They are met as equals with the belief that everyone is created in the image and likeness of God.

Over the past decade, the crisis of homelessness and poverty has severely impacted thousands of people across our Diocese. Over 10,000 people are currently experiencing the pain and hurt of homelessness. The pain that homelessness brings upon the body is not only physical. The wounds it creates on the person's spirit and soul are far more painful.

In today's Gospel, Jesus urges humility and tells us when we serve the poor we will be blessed. Your continued generosity enables Crosscare develop new ways of working with vulnerable adults, families and young people providing support services across our parishes that will help build a better future for all.

On behalf of the staff, volunteers and vulnerable adults in Crosscare, I would like to thank you for your generous support over the years. I know that all who work at Crosscare take their work and responsibility very seriously and I urge you to support them once again in this appeal.

Yours sincerely,

+ Diarmuid Martin, Archbishop of Dublin

Message from the Finance Committee Family Offering, Christmas and Easter Offerings

As you may be aware, tax relief exists whereby those who contribute €250 or more to a charity in a given tax year can allow the charity to draw down an additional sum (equal to almost 45% of the donation) from the Revenue Commissioners, which is sent directly to the parish. It is important to say that there is no loss or cost incurred by any taxpayer who is willing to be part of this system and that confidentiality will be assured in all aspects of this process.

For a person who contributes exactly €250 in any tax year – it is possible for the Parish to receive an additional €112.32 from the Revenue Commissioners. If the amount donated to the Church is in excess of €250, then this figure will increase accordingly.

This claim can be backdated for four years, so the finance committee are reaching out in the next week or two to the many generous contributors who have in the past donated €250 or more with further instructions on how you may help us in this pursuit.
