B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through death, separation or divorce. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? Seeking help is a sign of strength and self-knowledge – not weakness. This is a healing ministry which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. Next residential weekend will be held 16th – 18th November in Dominican Retreat House, Tallaght, Dublin 24. Quote from Pope Francis (All Saints)

On the Feast of All Saints, Pope Francis stressed that the saints are not “supermen” who are “born perfect,” but rather are ordinary people who followed God “with all their heart.” “They are like us, they are like each of us, they are people who before reaching the glory of heaven lived a normal life, with joys and griefs, struggles and hopes,” the Pope said before the noontime Angelus prayer in St. Peter’s Square Nov. 1st 2013

Each saint changed his or her life “when they recognised the love of God, they followed him with all their heart, without conditions and hypocrisies.”

“They spent their lives in the service of others, they endured suffering and adversity without hatred and responded to evil with good, spreading joy and peace,” he said.

COME AND SEE EXPLORING PRIESTHOOD RETREAT 23 & 24 November

Mount St. James, Killenard, near Portarlinton

This “Come and See” is a short retreat, commencing on a Friday evening and concluding on a Saturday afternoon at 4pm. It will provide those who wish to find out more about the life of a priest and explore the possibility that they might have a vocation to the priesthood.

Vatican City, Oct 23, 2018 (CNA). - Pope Francis spoke about the wisdom and knowledge of the faith older people can share with the young at a book presentation.

“One of the virtues of grandparents is that they have seen many things in their lives,” the pope said. “I advise [grandparents to have] a lot of love, a lot of tenderness... and prayers” for the young people in their lives who have left the faith.

“The faith is transmitted always in dialect. The dialect of the home, the dialect of friendship,” he said.

Pope Francis answered a series of questions from both young and elderly people at the presentation of a book published in Italian and English, called “Sharing the Wisdom of Time.”

It consists of interviews with older people from around the world. Among those who asked a question was the film director Martin Scorsese, who recalled his childhood growing up in the Catholic faith and attending St. Patrick’s Cathedral in New York City.

Scorsese said he was fortunate to have loving parents and a priest who became a mentor to him in his formative years. In a time when the world seems to be “marked by evil” and “we see the painful human failings of the institutional Church, how do we old people help young people stay in the faith? How can we help the Church in this endeavour?” he asked Francis.

The pope said that people must teach that cruelty is wrong, that torture “is the destruction of human dignity.” He also emphasised the gift of tears, which he said is “human and Christian and softens the heart.” “And closeness between young people and old people,” he said.

The Parish Pastoral Council

At it’s meeting on Wednesday October 24th the Council considered a number of items– A follow up to the Papal Visit in the form of a questionnaire; The Novena of Grace in March; Week of Guided Prayer; Catholic Schools Week; Deanery meeting Report; Archbishop’s Letter; Safeguarding; the issue of rough sleepers and begging around the Church; Issue of Ramp at the Main Entrance to the Church; Possibility of automatic doors for Wheelchairs and rollators.

Scripture Reflection.

Invitation to share in a Scripture Reflection in the Priest’s House this Tuesday 30th October after the 10am Mass. All warmly welcome
