Count Your Blessings

You may not be where you want to be right now, you may not have everything you need right now, but you have life.

Count your blessings, instead of your problems.

Count your smiles, instead of your tears.

Count your joys, instead of your sorrows.

Count your friends, instead of your enemies .

Count your strengths, instead of your weaknesses.

Have a positive and humble mindset no matter what situation you are in,

And you will realise how blessed and beautiful your life truly is.

Ehimen Okaka

Social distancing norms limits the number of people allowed to enter the church at any one time, St. Brendan's can accommodate up to 100 people at any Mass.

Those receiving Holy Communion should adhere to the one way system in place and remain socially distant from the communicant in front and receive in the hand.
