BUILDING HOPE TASK FORCE – Invitation to Parishioners

Archbishop Farrell has set up a Task Force under the title of Building Hope. The Task Force aims to stimulate engagement with the whole diocesan family and shape an inclusive approach to a pastoral strategy appropriate to our times. It is intended to support parish communities to undertake a radical renewal, looking to the future with creativity, enabling the Archdiocese of Dublin to act now, so as to give effective witness and service in the years ahead.

You are invited to take part in this consultation. There is a video, a prayer and a form on the www.dublindiocese.ie website. Please watch the video from the Archbishop and join with your family to pray and to discuss the future of the Church together. It is hoped that you might nominate one member of your family to return to the website and make a contribution by filling out the form.

The consultation form will remain online until the 18th July 2021. Pray, have the conversation and fill in the form.

TRANSFERRAL OF THE BODY OF CARDINAL PAUL CULLEN FROM THE TOMB UNDER THE ALTAR OF HOLY CROSS COLLEGE CHAPEL TO THE CRYPT IN ST MARY'S PRO CATHEDRAL 25th JUNE 2021

On Friday morning the 25th June the mortal remains of Cardinal Paul Cullen were transferred to the burial Crypt of the Pro-Cathedral, Dublin in a liturgy presided over by Archbishop Dermot Farrell, Cullen's successor as Archbishop of Dublin. Cardinal Cullen died in 1878 and his remains have rested under the high altar of the chapel of Holy Cross College, Clonliffe for over a century. The sale of Holy Cross College required that his body be reinterred in the Pro-Cathedral Crypt.

Cardinal Paul Cullen's contribution in the nineteenth century to the fields of religious, social, educational, and ecclesiastical reform in Ireland was immense. He had the distinction of being Ireland's first Cardinal, Archbishop of Armagh (1850 – 1852) and later Archbishop of Dublin (1852 - 1878).

TASK FORCE PRAYER

Pilgrim God, we give you thanks and praise.
You constantly journey with us even in our darkness and doubts.
We seek your way of loving kindness
to walk together as one family.
Open our eyes to recognise you in the faces of one another,
in the breaking of bread
and in the splendour of your creation.

May the Risen Christ
sow seeds of hope and new life deep within us.
May our hearts and minds be filled with your Word bringing forth truth, justice and peace.

May the Holy Spirit working in and through us,
do much more than we can dare to imagine
as we live out our baptismal calling in humble and loving service.
We make this prayer through Christ Our Lord
Amen.

St Laurence O'Toole: pray for us.
St Brigid: pray for us.
